DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 10-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In the claims, line 2 of all, " to he cascaded" is not understood, please correct.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1,2, and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kwasniewski et al(US 5,677,650).

Art Unit: 2817

The reference by Kwasniewski et al discloses an oscillation circuit comprising a plurality of switching elements(21A-21C), see figure 3A, each of the switching elements to be charged or discharged by the plurality of constant current control sources(29) with control current terminal to allow for a change of current to affect the charge/discharge process. Note that the resistive element (33) is also participates as a restrictive element, see col. 6- lines 30-40, and NMOS transistors are used. These restriction elements(including FETs 29 and 31) limit current and thus restrict a charge/discharge target voltage.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 4-9 are allowed.
7. Claims 10-15 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
